At the prestigious Court University, sparks fly between two fiercely independent and competitive students: Emily Evans and Ethan James. Emily, the brilliant but aloof President of the Debate Club, and Ethan, the arrogant and charming Captain of the Football Team, find themselves on opposite sides of every argument.

As fate would have it, they are assigned to a team project together, forcing them to work in close quarters and confront their undeniable chemistry. Amidst heated debates and stolen glances, Emily and Ethan discover that their rivalry masks a simmering attraction that threatens to consume them both.

A Page-Turning Odyssey of Forbidden Love and Self-Discovery

"Court University" is more than just a captivating romance. It's an exploration of identity, the challenges of growing up, and the transformative power of love.

Emily, driven by her ambition, struggles to reconcile her feelings for Ethan with her desire for academic success. Ethan, hiding his insecurities beneath a façade of confidence, must face his past and confront his inner demons.

As their relationship intensifies, Emily and Ethan must navigate the complexities of forbidden love, social pressures, and their own evolving identities. Through their journey, they discover that true love requires sacrifice, vulnerability, and the courage to embrace their true selves.
