Synopsis

In the aftermath of a devastating nuclear war, Seattle is a city in ruins. The few survivors who remain are struggling to rebuild their lives and their city. But they soon realize that the dead are not the only threat they face.

A group of survivors, led by a former soldier named Jack, are determined to rebuild Seattle and create a new future for themselves. But they soon encounter a group of raiders who are determined to take everything they have.

Jack and his group must fight for their survival against the raiders and the ever-present threat of the dead. But they are determined to rebuild Seattle and create a new future for themselves.
