Join Dorkius as he stumbles through the bustling streets of Alexandria, encounters enigmatic pharaohs and cunning priests, and becomes entangled in a series of hilarious mishaps that will shed a new light on this ancient civilization. From navigating the treacherous Nile River to infiltrating the sacred temples of Amun-Re, Dorkius's misadventures will provide a unique and humorous perspective on the grandeur of ancient Egypt.

A Cast of Unforgettable Characters

Alongside Dorkius, a colorful cast of characters adds to the hilarity and chaos of the novel. There's Cleopatra, the enigmatic and alluring queen, who finds herself unwittingly drawn into Dorkius's mishaps. Julius Caesar, the ambitious Roman general, provides a stern counterpoint to Dorkius's antics. And let us not forget the loyal but dim-witted Scribe, who diligently records Dorkius's every blunder for posterity.
