

Evel Knievel: An American Hero

Evel Knievel was born Robert Craig Knievel on October 17, 1938, in Butte, Montana. He was the son of a miner and a homemaker, and he grew up in a working-class neighborhood. Knievel was a natural daredevil from a young age, and he often performed stunts for his friends and family.

In 1965, Knievel began his professional career as a motorcycle stuntman. He quickly gained a reputation for his fearless riding and his willingness to take on dangerous jumps. Knievel's most famous stunt was his attempt to jump the Snake River Canyon in Idaho in 1974. The jump was unsuccessful, but it made Knievel a household name.
