The protagonist of The Castle, Sophie Lefevre, is a young woman with a heart of gold. When she is summoned to the grand Duncraig Castle to work as a housekeeper, she has no idea that her life is about to take an unexpected turn. The once-magnificent estate has fallen into disrepair, its secrets hidden within its crumbling walls.

As Sophie delves into the depths of the castle, she encounters a cast of unforgettable characters. There's the enigmatic owner, Gavin O'Hanlon, a man haunted by his past. There's Edward, the charming groundskeeper, who holds the key to the castle's rich history. And there's Ian, the curious but gentle laird, who has his own secrets to protect.

Unveiling the Castle's Secrets:

As Sophie digs deeper into the castle's past, she uncovers a story filled with love, loss, and betrayal. The walls whisper tales of a tragic romance between a noblewoman and a commoner, a secret that has remained hidden for centuries. Sophie's passion for the castle and its inhabitants drives her to unravel the truth, no matter how painful.

Alongside the historical mysteries, The Castle also explores themes of love, forgiveness, and redemption. Sophie finds herself drawn to both Gavin and Edward, two men who offer her different paths to happiness. As she navigates her own emotions, she learns the importance of embracing her past and overcoming her own obstacles.
