In this unforgettable novel, a young woman must confront the demons of her past and choose between her own safety and the lives of those she loves.

Orphaned as a young child, Anya has spent her life running from the memories of her past. But when she receives a letter from a long-lost relative, she is drawn back to the place where it all began.

Once there, Anya discovers that the orphanage where she grew up is now a dark and dangerous place. The children are being abused, and the staff is turning a blind eye. Anya knows she must do something to help the children, but doing so will put her own life in danger.

As Anya investigates the orphanage, she uncovers a sinister secret. The children are being harvested for their organs. And the mastermind behind the operation is someone Anya knows all too well.

Now, Anya must confront the demons of her past and choose between her own safety and the lives of those she loves. But can she do it before it's too late?
