Synopsis

In the war-torn land of Junia, where the Juniper Wars have raged for generations, women are forbidden to fight. But when the enemy threatens to destroy their home, three sisters defy tradition and take up arms.

Asha, the eldest, is a skilled warrior who has always longed to fight for her people. Lira, the middle sister, is a healer with a gift for mending wounds. And Meera, the youngest, is a brilliant strategist with a keen eye for detail.

Together, the three sisters form an unbreakable bond as they fight against the enemy and for the freedom of their people. But the war is not just a battle of swords and arrows. It is also a battle of wills, a test of courage, and a struggle for the very soul of Junia.
